5 Inflating Tips to take on your Quest for Someone Special

Rob Lang · Wednesday, February 1st, 2017

Here comes February, with the inevitable Valentine's Day looming over all of us. Don't have somebody to share a heart-shaped box of chocolates with? Well, take some tips from the male frigate bird. This guy is not afraid to show his big, inflated feelings on the outside.

1. It's hard to put yourself out there to find that special someone. It can be quite stressful!

Keep your eye on the prize

2. Sometimes all you can do is puff up your chest and look your best. Luckily there are methods you can use for help.

The hooded seal and the frigate bird are taking a class called "Inflate to Win Your Mate" taught by Master Frog, whose own inflating chin is legendary throughout wetlands around the world.

3. Don't try to discourage your friends.

Careful! Your friends may try to psyche you out!

4. Make sure you're not fooling yourself into becoming someone that you're not.

It's important to be yourself

5. In the end, your success is worth celebrating.

After the frigate bird and frog were both successful in winning a mate, they did the best chest bump ever.
