A Bit of This, a Dab of That

Ann Haskins · Wednesday, March 19th, 2025

Multi-media dance in Brentwood; contemporary choreography in Koreatown and Thousand Oaks; dance infiltrates a play in Pasadena and a theater fest in North Hollywood; Latin dance downtown; Mexican folkloric in Costa Mesa; dancers back a guitarist in Cerritos, Santa Barbara, Riverside, and Thousand Oaks; more SoCal dance this week, plus a peek at next week.

For the art

Movement, music, and ritual are braided together by multi-media artist Maria Magdalena Campos-Pons with sounds from Kamaal Malak & The Funk. Announced performers include Dell Hamilton, Helina Metaferia, Coco Villa, Temeka Gaither-Brown, Peyton Brown, and LaTasha Diggs, with musicians Samuel Alexandre, Kevin Jackson, KayShyne, and Calvin Rodgers. Getty Center, Harold J. Williams Auditorium, 1200 Getty Center Dr., Brentwood; Sat., March 22, 5 pm, free w/reservation at Getty.

Femme fatale redux

Since its premiere in 1875, Bizet's tale of ill-fated firebrand Carmen has fascinated opera-goers and spawned dance and film versions. On Carmen's 150th anniversary, Ballet Hispánico brings choreographer Gustavo Ramírez Sansano's reimagined version that takes inspiration from artist Pablo Picasso and his imagery of the bull. Fred Kavli Theatre, Bank of America Performing Arts Center, 2100 E. Thousand Oaks Blvd., Thousand Oaks; Thurs., March 20, 7:30 pm, $60.25 – $75.65. Bank of America PAC.

Something new, something familiar

The excellent contemporary company BODYTRAFFIC opens its studios for three evenings, performing the newest work from company member Joan Rodriguez along with dances from the repertory. At press time, Tuesday night is full; tickets remain available for the other two shows. BODYTRAFFIC Studios, 3435 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 200, Koreatown; Tues.-Thurs., March 18-20, 7 pm, free with reservation at BODYTRAFFIC.

A welcome border crossing

Mexican folkloric dance is so prevalent today, it is hard to capture the impact when Ballet Folklórico de México de Amalia Hernández first appeared and presented regional Mexican dances in a concert setting. The name was expanded to reference the visionary founder and distinguish it from the plethora of folkloric efforts it spawned. The celebrated company stops off this week at the last of three local venues with a repertoire that includes its consideration of ancient Aztec movement in the audience-pleasing Deer Dance. Segerstrom Center for the Arts, 600 Town Center Dr., Costa Mesa; Sat., March 22, 7:30 pm, $32.77-$77.97. SCFTA.

The stage calls

Presented by the LA Women's Theatre Festival, the 32nd Annual Solo Festival features a lot of dance solos among the theater offerings. The kickoff is a champagne gala and awards ceremony that includes a performance by Vannia Ibarguen. Among the five shows that follow, Maggie Cee, Mayuri Bhandari, Laura Elaine Ellis, and Sona Lewis present dance and the Saturday matinee is co-hosted by Lula Washington and Rosie Lee Hooks. Theatre 68, 5112 Lankershim Blvd. North Hollywood; Thurs.-Fri., March 27-28, 8 pm, Sat., March 29, 3 & 8 pm, Sun., March 30, 3 & 7 pm, $20-$150. Eventbrite.

Another stage calls

Choreographer Paul McGill provides the movement in John Anthony Loffredo's Frou-Frou: A Menagerie of Sorts, a reconstructed/deconstructed/skewed view of Tennessee Williams' The Glass Menagerie. Reviews of the new work praised McGill's moves for Patrick Reilly as the son, reenvisioned as an aspiring ballerina, with a culminating male duet in the play's last act. Boston Court, 70 N. Mentor Dr., Pasadena; Fri.-Sat., March 21-22 & Thurs.-Sat., March 27-29, 7:30 pm, Sun., March 23 & 30, 2 pm, $20-$67. Boston Court.

Jazzy homecoming

Over four weekends, American Contemporary Ballet alternates two works from its repertory. Jazz music and its world are the subject of Jazz, while Homecoming pays tribute to high school and marching bands. In addition to the choreography from artistic director Lincoln Jones, each evening involves refreshments and live music. ACB Studios, Bank of America Plaza, 333 S Hope St, Suite C-150, downtown; Jazz — Fri., March 21, & Thurs., March 20, 8 pm, Homecoming — Thurs.-Sat., March 27-29, 8 pm, $65-$140. American Contemporary Ballet.

Diverse Dancing

Known for his prowess on the guitar, Benise is also known as a consummate showman with dancers playing a central role with music from Spanish flamenco, salsa, samba, and the waltz. A frequent SoCal visitor, this tour's banner is 25 Years of Passion with stops now, and later this fall. Cerritos Center for the Performing Arts, 18000 Park Plaza Dr., Cerritos; Sat., March 22, 7:30 pm, $54-$94. Ticketmaster. Also at Fox Performing Arts Center, 3801 Mission Ave., Riverside; Sat., Sept. 13, 7:30 pm, $57-$123. Bands In Town. Also at Lobero Theatre, Santa Barbara; Fri., Oct. 10, 7:30 pm, $46.50-$102.50. Lobero Theatre. Also at Fred Kavli Theatre, Bank of America Performing Arts Center, 2100 E. Thousand Oaks Blvd., Thousand Oaks; Sat., Oct. 11, 7:30 pm, $33-$113. Ticketmaster.

Can't wait for summer?

Celebrating LA's resilience after the devastating wildfires and the power of dance for community and healing, the summer Friday night dance series Music Center Dance DTLA offers a Special Edition. With spring nites not always as welcoming as summer evenings, the event moves across the street from its summer Music Center Plaza venue to Disney Hall, offering a choice of indoor and outdoor locations to dance or watch. A lesson led by Latin dance troupe Contra Tiempo precedes the dance session. This summer's dance genres will be previewed by DJs in both locations. Summer is coming. Walt Disney Concert Hall, BP Hall and Blue Ribbon Garden, 111 S. Grand Ave., downtown; Fri., March 28, 7 pm, free w/reservation at Music Center.

Influential events

Originally commissioned for the Egyptian Pavilion at the 2024 Venice Biennale, the film installation Drama 1882 from Wael Shawky considers the events that countered a revolt against European colonial influence, resulting in Britain cementing its control of Egypt for another seven decades. Adapting the storied events into the form of an opera and performed in classical Arabic, Shawky choreographed, wrote, scored, and directed. This event is the latest in the museum's Wonmi's WAREHOUSE Programs. WAREHOUSE, MOCA Geffen Contemporary, 152 N. Central Ave., Little Tokyo; Thurs. – Sun., thru March 16, 11 am, free w/reservation.
