Best Psychic Reading Online: 6 Trusted Platforms & Online Psychics Reviewed

Our Friends · Thursday, July 30th, 2026

Some weeks feel heavier than others. A relationship stalls, a career choice looms, or you just want to talk something through with someone outside your usual circle. That pull often leads people to try a psychic reading online for the first time. A session is really a guided conversation, where an advisor uses tarot, astrology, or intuition to help you see your situation from a fresh angle.

Below we compare six platforms for online psychics: what each does best, how pricing works, and what real users report on Trustpilot and Reddit, so you can match one to your question and budget.

Best Online Psychic Platforms in Comparison

Rank	Platform	Best for	New-user offer	Starting price
1	Nebula	Astrology readings + psychic chat	3 minutes free + 80% off	$1/min
2	Kasamba	Love & soulmate readings	3 free minutes with 3 advisors + 50% off	$1.99/min
3	Keen	Mediums & advisor variety	First 5 min for $1	$1.99/min
4	AskNow	Phone readings	5 free min + ~$1/min intro package	$5.99/min
5	Purple Garden	Chat & video readings	New-user credit (promo-dependent)	$0.99/min
6	California Psychics	Vetted advisors & accuracy	20 min for $20 (~$1/min)	$4/min

1. Nebula — Best All-Around for Astrology and Psychic Chat

Nebula brings live readings and astrology guidance together in one place, with birth charts, compatibility reports, daily horoscopes, and one-on-one advisor chats. After a short quiz, you'll be matched with advisors who fit what you're looking for. New sessions usually begin with 3 complimentary minutes, so you can connect first and then continue at the advisor's per-minute rate.

Features that help you decide

- Astrology-first onboarding (birth date, time, place) gives an advisor context up front, which shortens the “getting to know you” part of an online psychic reading.
- A mobile-first app is available with a website, so it suits people who want guidance from their phone.
- A roster of 900+ advisors available around the clock, so you rarely wait long for a live chat.

User feedback

On Trustpilot, Nebula holds a rating in the low-4s across more than 17,000 reviews, with people most often mentioning ease of use and the clarity they take from a session. On r/Psychic, the astrology-plus-reading combination draws praise, though some reviewers flag that per-minute charges can be easy to lose track of, so it helps to watch your balance before a chat runs long.

Best for: Anyone who wants astrology tools and live psychic advice bundled into one easy platform.

2. Kasamba — Best for Love and Soulmate Readings

Kasamba is built around love and relationship guidance, with hundreds of advisors who specialize in dating, breakups, compatibility, and soulmate questions. Running since 1999, it offers readings by chat, phone, and email. New users get three free minutes with up to three different advisors, plus 50% off the first paid session, making it low-risk to try several readers.

Features that help you decide

- A wide choice of love psychics online, so you can filter for a relationship specialist rather than a generalist.
- Three formats, including email readings for people who prefer a written response they can revisit.
- Filters by specialty, price, and language make it quicker to find an online love psychic.

User feedback

Trustpilot places Kasamba in the low-4s across roughly 1,455 reviews, about two-thirds of them five-star, with praise centering on advisor compassion and the breadth of choice. On r/Psychic, Kasamba is one of the more frequently recommended names for love questions, with a recurring reminder from users: read an advisor's reviews carefully, since experiences on any open marketplace vary reader to reader.

Best for: People who want a love or soulmate reading and value trying a few relationship specialists before paying.

3. Keen — Best for Mediums and Advisor Variety

Keen is one of the largest marketplaces for psychic readings online, with more than 2,000 advisors covering tarot, astrology, career, and a dedicated category for mediumship. If you want to reach a psychic medium online to connect with a passed loved one, Keen's size means several specialists are usually available by phone or chat at any hour. New users get their first five minutes for $1, a practical way to test a reader before a longer session.

Features that help you decide

- A dedicated mediumship section makes finding psychic mediums online straightforward, with named advisors who build reputations over years.
- Transparent per-advisor reviews let you vet a specific reader, not just the platform.
- Phone and chat only, with no video, which is worth knowing if seeing your reader matters to you.

User feedback

Keen carries a rating in the high-3s to low-4s on Trustpilot across roughly 780 reviews. On r/Psychic, the $1-for-5-minutes offer comes up often as a low-cost way to sample several readers, and long-time users mention returning to the same advisor by name across threads.

Best for: Readers who want the widest choice of specialists, especially for a psychic medium online reading.

4. AskNow — Best for Phone Readings on a Budget Intro

AskNow is a phone-first service that has run for two decades, sorting readers into three tiers: Top Rated, Elite, and Master. Its introductory package works out to roughly $1 per minute plus five free minutes, one of the more affordable ways to try online phone psychics. Regular pricing climbs for Master advisors, so the intro deal is where the value sits.

Features that help you decide

- A genuine phone-reading focus for people who would rather talk than type.
- Three advisor tiers let you weigh experience against cost, so cheap online psychics and premium Master readers sit side by side.
- Intro package of 20 minutes for $20 plus five free Master minutes lowers the cost of a first try, backed by a satisfaction policy that lets you switch advisors.

User feedback

AskNow's Trustpilot score sits in the low 4s per review aggregators, though across a smaller review count than the bigger platforms, with sentiment leaning positive. Across r/Psychic and other forums, several named Master advisors earn strong feedback, while the most common caution is the jump from the $1/min intro to standard rates, which can reach roughly $14 per minute for top readers.

Best for: People who prefer phone readings and want the cheapest intro to trial an advisor before standard per-minute rates apply.

5. Purple Garden — Best for Chat and Video Readings

Purple Garden is an app-based platform that stands out for offering chat, phone, and live video in one place, so you can watch a reader pull cards in real time or keep things brief with text. Entry rates start around $0.99 per minute, among the lowest here, and new users typically receive free credit (the amount shifts with promotions). It is a solid pick if you want the best psychic readings online chat experience without giving up video later.

Features that help you decide

- Three formats, including video, so you can match the method to the reading (chat for a quick question, video for a tarot spread you want to see).
- Advisor profiles with intro videos, star ratings, and a "Top Accuracy" badge help you choose before you spend.
- Session replays let you revisit what was said, handy for longer or emotional readings.

User feedback

Purple Garden earns a rating in the mid-4s on Trustpilot across a few hundred reviews, with the majority five-star. On r/Psychic, it draws some of the most positive sentiment of any platform, with users repeatedly singling out the video readings and the quality of the mobile app. One recurring note: refunds can be hard to obtain, so treat a first session as a trial.

Best for: Anyone who wants a modern chat or video reading from a well-built app.

6. California Psychics — Best for Vetted Advisors and Accuracy

California Psychics has run for more than 25 years and is known for how hard it is to become one of its readers: the platform reports accepting fewer than 2% of applicants after a multi-stage screening that includes interviews, test readings, and a background check. That vetting is why people looking for real online psychics and trusted psychics online often land here. Readings come by phone and chat, with a new-user intro of 20 minutes for $20 and a “Life Changing or Free” satisfaction guarantee.

Features that help you decide

- A strict screening process (roughly a 2% acceptance rate) raises the baseline quality, so you are less likely to hit a weak session.
- Scheduled advisor availability suits people who want an ongoing relationship with one reader.
- A smaller roster than open marketplaces, which trades variety for consistency.

User feedback

On Trustpilot, California Psychics holds around 4 out of 5 across roughly 3,000 reviews, with advisor quality and the satisfaction guarantee cited most. On r/Psychic, users praise the consistency that screening brings, while a fair criticism is that the platform does not publish negative on-site reviews, so its own advisor ratings skew high.

Best for: People who care most about vetting and accuracy and want a satisfaction guarantee behind the reading.

Which Platform Should You Pick?

The right choice among these best online psychics depends on the question you are bringing.

- Best overall: Nebula, for astrology tools and psychic chat in one app with free starting minutes.
- Best for love: Kasamba, for its deep bench of relationship and soulmate specialists.
- Best for mediums: Keen, thanks to a dedicated mediumship category and the largest advisor pool here.
- Cheapest phone intro: AskNow, whose introductory package lands near $1 per minute (standard rates rise afterward).
- Lowest per-minute rate: Purple Garden, starting at $0.99/min for chat and video.
- Most vetted: California Psychics, for its strict screening and satisfaction guarantee.

Whichever of these top online psychics you choose, a psychic reading online works best as a tool for reflection and emotional support rather than a fixed forecast. For medical, legal, or financial decisions, speak with a qualified professional.

Frequently Asked Questions

Are online psychic readings real, and are they reliable? Online psychic readings are real conversations with real advisors, and many people find them reliable for reflection and emotional clarity. Accuracy varies by reader rather than by platform, so results depend on finding an advisor who connects with you, and they are best treated as guidance rather than a guaranteed prediction.

How do I prepare for an online psychic reading? Decide on one or two specific questions before you start, since a focused session gives you more per minute than an open-ended chat. Have a calm space and a payment method ready, and watch your balance so a live reading does not run longer than you planned.

Who is the most accurate psychic online? No single reader is provably “most accurate,” since accuracy is subjective and varies session to session. Platforms with strict screening, such as California Psychics and its reported 2% acceptance rate, raise the odds of a strong reading, but an advisor’s recent reviews are the more reliable guide.

Where can I get a free psychic reading online? Most platforms offer free or discounted introductory minutes rather than a fully free reading. Kasamba gives three free minutes with three advisors; AskNow offers five free minutes; and Purple Garden gives new-user credit. These trials let you sample a reader before paying full rates.

Where can I book a love or soulmate psychic reading online? Kasamba is the strongest pick for love and soulmate readings because it has hundreds of advisors who focus specifically on relationships. Its free trial minutes with three separate advisors make it easy to find a love psychic whose style fits before you commit.

How do I find a good psychic reader online? Filter by specialty, then read an advisor’s recent reviews (ideally the last 60 days) rather than relying on the platform’s overall score. Use free or $1 trial minutes to test a connection, and judge whether the advisor feels present and specific rather than generic.
