Dog Days Of Summer

Alexis Rhone Fancher · Wednesday, September 30th, 2015

You wouldn't know it, but it's autumn in Los Angeles. Elsewhere in the U.S., the air is crisp, the leaves are turning, and chill winds are beginning to blow. But here in this irrigated desert, the temperature soars close to 100F, and the dog days of summer (sic) are upon us, with its exhausting, muggy, dense heat that numbs the brain until it contains but one, lucid thought: Get Yourself To The Beach!
