En-Gendering

Ann Haskins · Wednesday, September 13th, 2023

Hip-hop history downtown, gender explorations in Lincoln Heights, Mexican folkloric dance in East LA, mountain searches in the Arts District, contemporary ballet in Costa Mesa, more SoCal dance, and a peek at next week.

Live This Week (Sept. 9-15)

In residence

The visceral choreography of Bobbi Jene Smith + Or Schreiber reflects their background with Israel's Batsheva Dance Company, extensive international choreography credits, and a productive, ongoing relationship with LA Dance Project. With their latest, the evening-length Missing Mountain, they continue their choreographic residence with LADP and its dancers. Catch a preview at LA Dance Project. The dancing is at LA Dance Project, 2245 E. Washington Blvd., Arts District; Thurs-Sat., Sept. 14-16, & 28-30, $45, $35 seniors & under 35, $25 students. LA Dance Project tickets.

Gender on stage

Two days of performance by six LA-based companies and choreographers are the culminating events of Gender View, a multi-day exploration of dance choreography inspired by gender identity representation in different artistic genres and different cultures. The classes and workshops examine and consider visual and written work drawn from Russia, Asia, Africa, Europe and the Americas for insights into how gender in art reflects and is reflected in the dominant culture and its undercurrents. The two performances include work derived from those explorations. Participating choreographers include Grethcin Ackerman/Alejandro Perez, Seda Abay with her Kybele Dance Theatre, Andrea Burr/Jules Mara/Himerria Wortham, Brian Frette, Charlotte Katherine and Co., and Deborah Brockus, event producer and artistic director of the host company BrockusRED. A 6:30 pm talk with the artists precedes both shows. Fiesta Hall, Plummer Park, 1166 N Vista St, West Hollywood; Fri.-Sat., Sept. 15-16, 7 pm, $15 at door or Venmo @brockusprojectstudios.

The folks with the words

Paying tribute to the life of the hip-hop emcee/lyricist, 7NMS / Marjani Forté-Saunders and Everett Saunders bring their latest, Prophet: The Order of the Lyricist. Forté-Saunders is the choreographer/performer and Saunders is the composer/sound designer. Developed over four years of research, the project also produced a film version commissioned by Jacob's Pillow that involved D. Sabela Grimes as movement composer/sound archivist, Meena Murugesan as filmmaker/media designer, and photographer Marc Winston. Friday's performance includes a post-performance talk with the 7NMS creative team moderated by hip-hop musicologist Rahaman "Kil" Kilpatrick. REDCAT at Disney Hall, 631 W. 2nd St., downtown; Thurs.-Fri., Sept. 21-22, 8:30 pm, Sat., Sept. 23, 1 pm, $30, $24 students. REDCAT.
