Heat from Spain

Ann Haskins · Thursday, August 3rd, 2023

Atomic aftermath considered in Little Tokyo, Rumba at sunset downtown, flamenco fest in Santa Barbara, contemporary dance in Orange, more SoCal dance this week (August 4 to 10) and a peek at next week.

Live This Week

Stomping it

Multiple events are part of this year's Flamenco Arts Festival. The centerpiece is Espacio Creativo, the 7:30 pm show by Alfonso Losa Flamenco from Madrid, Spain. The pre-concert reception at 6 pm (free to ticket holders) includes dancer Mizuho Sato and guitarist Jesse Torre who perform as Sol y Lunares. The evening concludes with an optional catered after party (separately ticketed). Lobero Theatre 33 E. Canon Perdido St., Santa Barbara; Fri., Aug 4, reception at 6 pm, show at 7:30 pm, $51-$106. Afterparty $36. Info and tickets at Lobero Theatre

An Oppenheimer aftermath

Set in 1950's post war Japan, Peace on Your Wings is based on the true story of Sadako Sasaki and her 1000 paper cranes. When the atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima, Sadako was two years old and less than a mile from the blast's epicenter. She survived the bombing but was among the many survivors who developed cancer from the radiation exposure. Sadako's crafting of 1000 origami paper cranes before her death at age 12 has become a symbolic plea for peace. Choreographer Dani Hannah Bensky provided the moves to the musical presented by Ohana Arts that runs for three performances here in preparation for performances in Japan starting in September. While Sasaki worked with schoolmates solo, starting at noon, a public origami folding outside the theater aims to create 1000 paper cranes in the two hours before the show and the day before the anniversary of the bombing. JACCC's Aratani Theatre, 244 San Pedro St., Little Tokyo; Sat., Aug. 5, 2 & 7:30 pm, Sun., Aug. 6, 2 pm, $20- $75. JACCC.

Medicine and dance

Among the physicians and medical teams providing needed eye and surgical care through LIGA aka Flying Doctors are Dr. Richard Villasenor and surgical nurse Maribel Aja-Villasenor. She also is an accomplished flamenco dancer and featured in this 2023 Flamenco Benefit for Flying Doctors. The event provides funding for an eye clinic in Sinaloa, Mexico where patients walk for miles just to get on the waiting list to see the LIGA physicians and their flamenco dancer surgical nurse. Warner Brothers Performing Arts Center, Burbank; Sat.-Sun., Aug. 5-6, time & email for ticket price to twoeyedancer@aol.com.
