

Cultural Daily

Independent Voices, New Perspectives

I Am Not A Virus

Lina “digitalina” Finley · Wednesday, March 3rd, 2021

I Am Not a Virus Artist Statement

Coronavirus has brought out the worst in some people and has caused the hate spread towards Asians to surface. Unfortunately, hate speech and violence has always been around, but COVID-19 has brought the issue to the forefront.

My piece has collected many words used against and to describe Asian people during this pandemic. I wanted to create an image that embodies the phrase “I am not a virus,” which is the phrase used by many other vocal artists at this time. The ultimate goal is to bring awareness to this issue and to express that our race does not define us, and we should not be barred or treated differently because of it.

— Lina Finley (digitallina)

*

This entry was posted on Wednesday, March 3rd, 2021 at 2:56 pm and is filed under Visual/Design, Identity, Discourse

You can follow any responses to this entry through the Comments \(RSS\) feed. You can skip to the end and leave a response. Pinging is currently not allowed.