In a Dark Room. Intoxicated.

Edward Goldman · Wednesday, June 8th, 2011

My recent trip to Europe ended up in Barcelona, sneaking from one dark room to another in the hotel where I was staying. But let me assure you, I was doing this for all the right reasons. About fifty art dealers from around the world gathered there for Loop, an annual video art fair. Each dealer, in his or her room, was allowed to show only one video work by one artist. Corridors were crowded with people going in and out of these small hotel rooms, converted temporarily into darkened galleries...
