Informed Citizens of America?

Cultural Daily · Wednesday, October 23rd, 2013

Although there's been many questions regarding the recent government shutdown, none capture the sentiment/state of our nation in general better than this social experiment by Jimmy Kimmel. Asking pedestrians on Hollywood Boulevard whether they prefer Obamacare or The Affordable Care Act (if you haven't gotten the joke by now, they're the same thing) reveals how little voting citizens know about the legislature they purportedly support. If you're someone who claims any political intelligence, prepare to be amused – or perhaps appalled is more appropriate. Your call. Here are America's informed citizens.
