Revisitating a rarity

Considered a masterpiece, choreographer Blondell Cummings' 1981 solo Chicken Soup has a rare performance by SoCal choreographer/dancer Marjani Forté-Saunders. Focusing on domestic labor as the soul of a household, the work is presented as part of Uplifting Black Legacy through the City of Santa Monica Cultural Affairs Division's partnership with New York City's Danspace Project. ## Influential events

Originally commissioned for the Egyptian Pavilion at the 2024 Venice Biennale, the film installation Drama 1882 from Wael Shawky considers the events that countered a revolt against European colonial influence, resulting in Britain cementing its control of Egypt for another seven decades. Adapting the storied events into the form of an opera and performed in classical Arabic, Shawky choreographed, wrote, scored, and directed. This event is the latest in the museum's Wonmi's WAREHOUSE Programs. Related events include a conversation with Shawky and assistant curator Alex Sloane on Sat., Feb. 22 at 3 pm. WAREHOUSE, MOCA Geffen Contemporary, 152 N. Central Ave., Little Tokyo; Thurs. – Sun., thru March 16, 11 am, free w/reservation at Tickets.

With friends like these

Directed by legendary choreographer Matthew Bourne, with additional choreography from Stephen Mear, Stephen Sondheim's Old Friends is headlined by Bernadette Peters, Lea Salonga, and a lineup of British and American musical theater luminaries. Perhaps because of Bourne's long relationship with the Center Theater Group, LA nabbed the U.S. premiere before the Sondheim celebration goes to Broadway. Music Center, Ahmanson Theatre, 135 N. Grand Ave., downtown; Tues.-Fri., 8 pm, Sat., 2 & 8 pm, Sun., 1 & 6:30 pm, thru March 9, $25 – $195.50. CTG.
