Public Radio International: Keep Your Connection to the World

Adam · Thursday, May 2nd, 2013

 If a free press is essential for a free society, then it is equally essential that the press be sufficiently funded to do its job. Today, that's far from certain.

PRI, Public Radio International, has been reporting about global issues for 30 years. They have launched an indiegogo campaign to support this work, and need to raise $25,000 by May 10, 2013. Peek behind the scenes in their video below, then go to their indiegogo page and show your support for a free, well-funded press and PRI's journalistic excellence.
