LIFE AFTER BIRTH INTRODUCES THE NEW LOS ANGELES

Carol Green · Wednesday, August 29th, 2018

And yet with all the prosperity and unbridled commerce, L.A.'s savage inequity is a crippling travesty with tent cities as commonplace as million dollar homes. You can emerge from a restaurant that serves $80 steaks, wade through the human catastrophe of sprawling homelessness, drive home to gated glory in a Tesla luxury, but get stuck in traffic so bad you'd be better off traveling by donkey. – Steve Lopez, L.A. Times, August 25, 2018
