Live? Film? Dance Camera West. So Both!

Ann Haskins · Thursday, April 20th, 2017

This week's SoCal dance events include dance on public art in Culver City, flamenco in East Hollywood, political dance downtown to benefit Planned Parenthood, contemporary dance in Glassell Park, dance and live music at Southwest College, and so much more.

5. Togethering

Rebecca Lemme's Acts of Matter and Andrea Gise's Dance Aegis reunite for a third shared concert under the banner T 3 T H E R I N G. Their prior joint concerts provided compelling contemporary dance and this time the two companies join forces with two new players L.A. Contemporary Dance Company and OC-based The Assembly. Details on related events including a Friday workshop at <http://t3thering.bpt.me>. Live Arts LA, 4210 Panamint St., Glassell Park; Sat., April 22, 8 & 10 p.m., Sun., April 23, 2 p.m., $20 in advance, $25 at door, $15 student in advance, $20 at door. <http://t3thering.bpt.me>.

2. Just getting the family together

It's definitely a family affair as the Washington Family Concert affirms the power of education and celebrates Southwest College's 50th anniversary. For the occasion, celebrated choreographer Lula Washington assembled her talented dance family and musical in-laws including husband/producer Erwin Washington, daughter/choreographer/dancer Tamika Washington-Miller, and her husband/composer/drummer Marcus L. Miller. On the in-law side, composer/musicians Rickey Washington and Kamasi Washington are joined by the 10 piece band The Next Step playing music from their hit cd The Epic, plus art and emcee contributions from four more cousins. Several of the family are Southwest grads and as alumni welcomed the chance to get together to jam with new choreography and live music for this golden anniversary. L.A. Southwest College, Little Theatre, 1600 W. Imperial Hwy., Westmont; Sat., April 22, 8 p.m., $50-$100. 323-241-5401. <http://lasc.edu/50>.
