Residue

In her first major LA installation, artist Moriah Evans offers Remains Persist, a four hour durational performance considering the vestiges of past actions, personal histories, and socio-political movements. Evans draws on somatic practices and feminist critiques of performance and visual culture. The installation/performances are part of MOCA's Wonmi's WAREHOUSE Programs curated by Alex Sloane. The Geffen Contemporary at MOCA, 152 N. Central Ave., Little Tokyo; Sat.-Sun., Oct. 28-29, Thurs.-Sat., Nov. 2-4, 4 pm to 8 pm, $10. MOCA.

There will be blood

As Halloween festivities begin and horror movies take over the airwaves, Dracula has emerged as the season's answer to the Nutcracker. West Coast Ballet returns for the second year with its version. Guest artist Eduard Sargsyan from Pacific Ballet Dance Theater does the vampire duty. The audience is encouraged to wear costumes for post-performance photos with the cast. El Segundo Performing Arts Center, 640 Main St., El Segundo; Sun., Oct. 29, 6 pm, $39. West Coast Ballet.

Dualities

Final shows of American Contemporary Ballet's double bill opener from artistic director Lincoln Jones. Stravinsky's Rite of Spring provides the score for The Rite while Burlesque draws on music from several composers. ACB Studios, Two California Plaza, 350 S. Grand Ave., Suite 2850, downtown; Fri.-Sat., Oct. 27-28, 8 pm. $100-$140. American Contemporary Ballet.
