No)one Art House presents: "Chiasm. Or, the body of two faces"

Sarah Elgart · Thursday, June 9th, 2016

This week in LA a dynamic, emerging, young dance company No)one Art House presents "Chiasm. Or, the body of two faces". This world premiere production, with choreography by New York based Danielle Russo and two local emerging artists: fashion designer PHLEMUNS and projection artist Steve Rosa, will be "built as an immersive event, wholly engulfing audience members at The Forge, a hidden gem in northeast Los Angeles".

No)one Art House, who describe themselves as "a collective of artists that produces contemporary movement based productions. With an emphasis on approachability, the collective curates stimulating performances encouraging viewers to surpass preconceived expectations of what an artistic experience can be." No)one Art House has been plugging away diligently for several years now and are emerging in dance as a force to be taken seriously in Los Angeles. The style blog refinery 29 is also live streaming the performance but I encourage you to go see it LIVE! They are a not to be missed collective of dedicated and powerful young artists under the artistic direction of Christopher Bordenave.

Catch a glimpse in the trailer below.
