Pigeon Forge is a fantastic destination for a fun-filled vacation with friends. Nestled in the foothills of the Great Smoky Mountains, this charming town offers a wide array of activities that cater to diverse interests. Whether you're looking for thrilling adventures, scenic beauty, or unique entertainment, Pigeon Forge has it all. Here are ten top things to do in Pigeon Forge with your friends to make your trip unforgettable.

1. Visit Dollywood

Dollywood is one of Pigeon Forge's most iconic attractions and a must-visit for your group of friends. This theme park, owned by country music legend Dolly Parton, offers a mix of exhilarating rides, live entertainment, and unique attractions. Thrill-seekers can enjoy roller coasters like the Lightning Rod and Wild Eagle, while those looking for a more relaxed experience can take in one of the many live shows featuring music, dance, and comedy. The park also hosts seasonal events and festivals, such as the Harvest Festival and Smoky Mountain Christmas, which add extra charm and excitement to your visit. With a variety of dining options and shops, Dollywood provides a full day of fun and entertainment for everyone in your group.

2. Take a Hike!

For those who love the outdoors, the Smoky Mountains are ideal for all your hiking adventures. The Great Smoky Mountains National Park, located just a short drive from Pigeon Forge, boasts over 800 miles of trails ranging from easy walks to challenging hikes. If you want to add some adventurous fun to your group vacation Smoky Mountains will serve as the perfect backdrop! Popular trails include the Alum Cave Trail, which offers stunning views and unique geological formations, and the Laurel Falls Trail, known for its beautiful waterfall. Hiking in the Smokies not only provides a great workout but also an opportunity to bond with friends amidst nature's beauty.

3. Ride the Smoky Mountain Alpine Coaster

For a unique and thrilling experience, head to the Smoky Mountain Alpine Coaster. This gravity-driven coaster lets you control the speed as you descend a mountain track, offering both excitement and breathtaking views. It's the longest downhill ride in the United States, providing a thrilling adventure that you and your friends won't soon forget. The ride is open year-round, so you can enjoy it in any season. Whether you're a speed demon or prefer a leisurely pace, the Smoky Mountain Alpine Coaster is a perfect activity for a group of friends looking for some adrenaline-pumping fun.

4. Explore The Island in Pigeon Forge

The Island in Pigeon Forge is a lively entertainment complex packed with activities for all ages. Start your visit with a ride on the Great Smoky Mountain Wheel, a 200-foot-tall Ferris wheel offering panoramic views of the area. Afterward, explore the various shops and boutiques, where you can find everything from souvenirs to unique gifts. The Island also features a range of dining options, from casual eateries to more upscale restaurants, making it a great spot for a meal with friends. Don't miss the Island Show Fountain, which performs a dazzling display of water and light synchronized to music. With its vibrant atmosphere and variety of attractions, The Island is a perfect place to spend a day with friends.

5. Go-Kart Racing at The Track

For some high-speed fun, head to The Track for go-kart racing. The Track offers multiple go-kart tracks catering to different skill levels, so everyone in your group can join in on the excitement. Whether you're racing each other on the Wild Woody, a three-story wooden track, or navigating the twists and turns of the Family Track, you're sure to have a blast. The Track also features other attractions like mini-golf, bumper boats, and an arcade, providing a full day of fun and friendly competition. It's a great way to engage in some light-hearted rivalry and create lasting memories with your friends.

6. Visit the Titanic Museum Attraction

The Titanic Museum Attraction in Pigeon Forge offers a fascinating and immersive experience, perfect for a group of friends. This half-scale replica of the original ship provides a unique opportunity to explore the history of the Titanic. Upon entering, visitors receive boarding passes with the names of actual passengers who were on the Titanic. As you walk through the museum, you'll find interactive exhibits, including a replica of the Grand Staircase, artifacts recovered from the wreck, and hands-on displays such as touching an iceberg and feeling the cold Atlantic water. The museum also offers an audio tour that enhances the educational experience. Exploring the museum together allows you and your friends to learn about this historic event in an engaging and memorable way.

7. Have Fun at Pigeon Forge Snow

Pigeon Forge Snow is a unique indoor snow park that offers year-round winter fun. This one-of-a-kind attraction features snow tubing lanes and a snow play area where you can build snowmen or have snowball fights. The climate-controlled environment ensures that you can enjoy the snow without freezing, making it a comfortable and fun experience for everyone. Pigeon Forge Snow uses real snow made from water, so it's just like being in a winter wonderland. Whether you're tubing down the slopes or playing in the snow, this attraction is a great way to add some frosty fun to your Pigeon Forge adventure with friends.

8. Experience the Old Mill Square

Old Mill Square is a charming historic area that offers a variety of activities and dining options. The centerpiece is the Old Mill, a gristmill built in 1830 that still operates today. You can take a tour of the mill to see how grain is ground into flour and learn about its history. The area also features several unique shops and restaurants. The Old Mill Restaurant and the Pottery House Café & Grille are great places to enjoy a meal with friends, offering delicious Southern cuisine. You can also visit the Old Mill Candy Kitchen to watch candy being made and pick up some sweet treats. The pottery shop offers beautiful handmade pottery, perfect for souvenirs. Spending time at Old Mill Square provides a mix of history, shopping, and dining that everyone in your group will enjoy.
