
Cultural Daily

Independent Voices, New Perspectives

Presenting The Yellow House Library Poets

Chiwan Choi · Saturday, April 23rd, 2022

Over the past couple of years, poet and community organizer Babatunde Babafemi has been running The Yellow House Library in Lagos, Nigeria. Created with a small batch of used books that he purchased and other books donated from around the world, he has (literally) built a gathering place for young people around the local communities to read, to borrow books for free, and to share their own work with each other.

Starting next week, Cultural Daily is proud to publish work that these young teens have written and performed for each other (and live on social media).

We are proud to continue supporting Babafemi and all the young writers and readers as they impact their communities through The Yellow House Library, their love of books, their tremendous art, and their spirit of sharing and community.

*

 www.yellowhouse.ng
 @Theyellowhouse5

The Yellow House

This entry was posted on Saturday, April 23rd, 2022 at 7:59 am and is filed under Community, Literature

You can follow any responses to this entry through the Comments \(RSS\) feed. You can leave a response, or trackback from your own site.