Principled Temperaments

Ann Haskins · Wednesday, May 28th, 2025

The Great Gatsby conjured up in Beverly Hills; a significant season finale in Hollywood; street dance in the Glendale foothills; contemporary ballet in Venice Beach, Fairfax, and Santa Monica; a mini-fest downtown; contemporary dance in Brea, Irvine, and Santa Monica; more SoCal dance this week, plus a peek at next week.

Live This Week

On Gatsby's centenary

The elegant preserved grounds of a LA oil magnate's estate may not be "the Egg," but for LA provides a pitch-perfect setting for Gatsby Redux, Janet Rosten's site specific consideration of F. Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby. This encore performance by Mixed eMotion Theatrix marks the company's return to again lead delighted audiences through the story and through an estate that conjures up Gatsby's world of jazz age privilege and poverty. Appropriate dress and footwear are recommended for the mostly outside performance that involves walking and some stairs. Greystone Mansion & Gardens, 905 Loma Vista Dr., Beverly Hills; Thurs.- Sun., June 5-8 & Wed.-Sat. June 12-14, 7 pm, $30. Beverly Hills.

Sizzling finale

Artistic director Tina Finkelman Burkett and the masterful dancers of BODYTRAFFIC close the season with This Reminds Me of You, a triptych reflecting the troupe’s highly regarded emphasis on new choreography. Internationally recognized choreographer Trey McIntyre, now the company’s creative consultant, reprises Mayday, his first work created on the company’s dancers. Premiered earlier this season, Mayday is set to Buddy Holly’s music and pays homage to Holly’s life, music and death in a plane crash while on tour. Following up on last year’s highly praised, Cuban Missile Crisis-inspired Bloquea’o, company dancer and rehearsal director Joan Rodriguez has a new work evoking an Afro-Cuban nightclub and exploring performers’ offstage doubts behind those onstage smiles. The third work from company dancer Jordyn Santiago, marks her professional debut as a choreographer and provides the first company work with only female company members. Avalon Hollywood, 1735 N. Vine St., Hollywood; Thurs., June 5, 7 pm, $60. BODYTRAFFIC.

Shakespeare moves

Adapter, director and choreographer John Farmanesh-Bocca returns with Lear Redux: A

Quantum Fantasia, the latest in his “Redux” series boldly reconsidering the classics. The event also reunites him with choreographic collaborators Not Man Apart-Physical Theatre Ensemble along with New American Theatre and the Odyssey Theatre Ensemble. Jack Stehlin tackles the part of King Lear, surrounded by Eve Danzeisen, Dennis Gersten, Dash Pepin, Jade Sealey, Ahkei Togun, and Emily Yetter. The Odyssey Theatre, 2055 S. Sepulveda Blvd., WLA; Fri.-Sat., 8 pm, Sun., 2 pm, Wed. June 11 & 25, 8 pm, thru Sun., July 13, $20-$43. Odyssey Theatre Ensemble.

A rising tide

Since its founding four decades ago providing after school support for local youth, The Wooden Floor and particularly its dance unit, has developed young dance talent who are given a chance to strut their stuff at an annual concert, often in works provided by name choreographers. This 42nd annual concert, Curious Currents of Possibilities, features work by choreographers Billy Smith, Eva Stone, and the program’s artistic director Jennifer Bassage Bonfil. Irvine Barclay Theater, 4242 Campus Dr., Irvine; Thurs.-Fri., May 29-30, 8 pm, Sat., May 31, 2 & 8 pm, $20-$50, children half-price. The Wooden Floor Tix.

An opera with dancers and clowns

When the LA Opera opens Verdi’s Rigoletto next week for six Music Center performances, it will more closely resemble the 2023 Atlanta Opera production than the 2019 and 2022 performances in Houston and Dallas, Texas, all directed by Tomer Zvulun. After the Texas shows, the director Zvulun tasked Atlanta-based choreographer Ricardo Aponte to lighten the dark tale of lust and privileged cruelty with dancers and clowns. In addition to the dance moves, Aponte’s assignment included choreographing banana juggling for the opera. Music Center, Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, 135 N. Grand Ave., downtown; Sat., May 31, 7:30 pm, Sun., June 8 & 15, 2 pm, Thurs., June 12, Wed., June 18, & Sat., June 21, 7:30 pm. $37.50-$450. LA Opera.

Who needs CGI?

Jaw-dropping puppetry anchors The Life of Pi, the award-winning theatrical retelling of Yann

Martel's best-selling novel about a 16-year old shipwreck survivor adrift in a lifeboat with four animals, notably a Bengal tiger. Nick Barnes and Finn Caldwell created the puppetry for the original, Olivier award-winning British production that went on to Broadway and won several Tony awards. Anyone who sniffs that puppetry isn't dance or choreography should watch the multiple actors' tightly orchestrated manipulations as well as the puppet's choreographed moves, and then just shush up. Everyone else can sit back and marvel. Music Center, Ahmanson Theatre, 135 N. Grand Ave., downtown; Tues.-Fri., 8 pm, Sat., 2 & 8 pm, Sun., 1 & 6 pm, also Thurs., May 29, 2 pm, thru Sun., June 1. $37.95 - $166.75 (w/ fees). Life of Pi. Also at Segerstrom Center for the Arts, 600 Town Center Dr., Costa Mesa; Tues.-Fri., June 3-6, & 10-13, 7:30 pm, Sat., June 8 & 14, 2 & 7:30 pm, Sun., June 9 & 15, 1 & 6:30 pm, $44.07-$157.07.
