Quietum Plus Reviews – Best Tinnitus Relief Supplement?

Our Friends · Tuesday, July 2nd, 2024

Tinnitus is the medical condition identified with constant ringing or buzzing in the ears which affects many people across the globe.

However, for the many people who continue to experience such discomfort, the search for a cure seems never-ending.

Despite the fact that there is currently no known treatment that can cure tinnitus, there are many different products and supplements that are said to help reduce the symptoms and manage the condition.

Quietum Plus is one such supplement that has gained attention for its potential benefits.

What is Quietum Plus?

Quietum Plus is a dietary supplement with natural ingredients that aims to improve ear health and reduce tinnitus.

It uses a combination of specific herbs, vitamins, and minerals to increase circulation of blood in the inner ear, for healing of damaged parts and promotion of ear functions.

The product aims to reduce ringing and whooshing sound that is linked with tinnitus, and also enhance cognitive faculties like memory and concentration.

Quietum Plus Ingredients: What's Inside

- Epimedium: This herb is popular for increasing blood circulation and enhancing nerve functionality and has been used to treat ear and hearing complications.
- Tribulus Terrestris: Known for its anti-inflammatory and antioxidant properties, it helps improve ear health by boosting cardiovascular health.
- Dong Quai: Popularly referred to as female ginseng, it improves blood flow, making it beneficial for the functioning of the heart and ears.
- Catuaba Powder: A traditional Brazilian herb that enhances sleep, brain and memory and tackles hearing loss associated with enhanced oxidative stress.
- Damiana: This plant helps calm the brain and enhances the function of nerves, hence helping to improve hearing ability.

Other ingredients include Mucuna pruriens, Maca Root and L-Tyrosine as well as some vitamins and minerals such as magnesium and potassium for maintaining optimal ear and overall health.

How Does Quietum Plus Work?

Quietum Plus primarily improves blood circulation in the inner ear and repairing damaged ear cells and improving its function. This enhanced blood flow enables the ear to forward clear sound to the brain hence reducing or eradicating the feeling of ringing or buzzing.

Ingredients like Catuaba powder and Damiana enhance blood circulation, while Maca root and Ginger work to preserve ear cells and combat oxidative damage.

These combined actions soothes the nervous system, assists in the repair work of nerves and cells, as well as general well-being, making it a safe and natural supplement to overcome tinnitus problems.
