Roberta Levitow on the fearless Rose Mbowa

Julie Hébert · Wednesday, July 29th, 2015

A Look What She Did! video with Roberta Levitow on Rose Mbowa.

Roberta Levitow opens up about the groundbreaking theater artist and teacher, Rose Mbowa, who risked her personal safety to defend freedom of speech in Uganda during Idi Amin's reign, creating programs to empower local African artists and their communities. Mbowa's art and teachings inspired the entire African continent and beyond, proof that one voice speaking truth in a time of darkness can make a difference. Here is Roberta Levitow talking about Rose Mbowa:

“Until the Lion learns to speak, the tale of the hunt will always glorify the Hunter.”

With our new backyard video project, Look What She Did!, we are creating an ongoing archive of short videos celebrating crazy-great women as told to us by... crazy-great women. See more videos posted on our YouTube channel and our Facebook page. All of us working on this project are having a blast and are fired up about sharing these inspiring stories with you.
