Think about ERP Solution and SAP will be the first name that comes to your mind. The reason for SAP and ERP being synonymous is the long history of SAP in the ERP solution business.

SAP – Past

Headquartered in Walldorf, Germany, SAP is the market leader in enterprise application software. Founded in 1972, SAP (which stands for “Systems, Applications, and Products in Data Processing”) has a rich history of innovation and growth as a true industry leader.

SAP – Present

SAP, headquartered in Walldorf in the south of Germany, and listed in Frankfurt and New York, is a market leader in business software, with more than 440,000 customers in more than 180 countries, and 100,330 employees worldwide (as of December 31, 2019). About 80% of its customers are small and midsize companies. Total revenue in 2019 was €27.63 billion, including €7 billion from its cloud business (which is expected to triple by 2023). SAP works with about 21,100 partners and builds software solutions for 25 industries. In 2019, it invested more than €4.3 billion in research and development, including at 20 SAP Labs development centers worldwide. SAP’s business is helping customers optimize their business processes. SAP’s purpose is to help the world run better and improve people’s lives. Today, 77% of all business transactions worldwide touch an SAP system. For example, SAP’s customers produce 78% of the world’s food products and 82% of the world’s medical devices

SAP Cloud – HANA

In 2011, the first customers started using the in-memory database SAP HANA. Data analyses that used to take days or even weeks were now completed in seconds. Four years later, SAP launched SAP S/4HANA, its latest generation of business software, running entirely on SAP HANA. In 2019, SAP acquired U.S. company Qualtrics, a leader in experience management software, placing SAP at the leading edge of this growing segment. Today, SAP builds solutions for the Internet of Things and machine learning, for complex analyses and blockchain. SAP HANA is now available on the three largest public cloud platforms. The company’s integrated applications connect all parts of a business into an intelligent suite on a digital platform. SAP has more than 215 million cloud users currently, more than 100 solutions covering all business functions, and the largest cloud portfolio of any provider. SAP operates 69 data centers at 35 locations in 15 countries.

SAP As A Career

With This big presence worldwide, SAP is a great career for those professionals who want to work in ERP and Cloud sectors. SAP-related jobs can be found in almost any country on the globe.
