Shimmery Summer Start Ups

Ann Haskins · Wednesday, June 19th, 2024

Romantic Russian tragedy downtown; international fest returns live to Lincoln Heights, LGBTQIA+ celebrated in Santa Monica; summer dance series opens in West LA; COLA solo downtown; tap fest showcase in West Adams; Hollywood fest on the fringe; more SoCal dance this week, plus a peek at next week.

Live This Week

Beware of trains

Choreographer Yuri Possokhov is having an LA moment. Last month, Los Angeles Ballet closed its season with Possokhov's Firebird. This weekend, The Joffrey Ballet brings the choreographer's retelling of Tolstoy's tragic romance Anna Karenina. A well-known figure in San Francisco where he was principal dancer with San Francisco Ballet, Possokhov segued into choreography and since 2006, has been that company's choreographer in residence. In-demand nationally and internationally, Possokhov developed an ongoing relationship with Chicago's Joffrey Ballet including this Anna Karenina, created in 2019 as a joint project for the Australian Ballet and the Joffrey, the latter bringing the ballet to LA. Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, Music Center, 135 N. Grand Ave., downtown; Fri.-Sat., June 21-22, 7:30 pm, Sat.-Sun., June 22-23, 2 pm, $34-$138. Music Center.

Together again

In 2019, the ever-adventurous LA Dance Festival founder Deborah Brockus launched an auspicious exchange with Korean contemporary dance companies. For the pandemic-restricted second iteration in 2020, Brockus and the Korean organizers shifted to a zoomed performance exchange for four years. With Covid hopefully now in the rearview mirror, the organizers return to an in-person LA Dance Festival International Exchange, welcoming dance artists from Korea as well as a team from Canada for two nights of performances, preceded by a meet and greet, workshops, and classes. Details on the performing artists and all festival events are at the website LA Dance Festival. Performances are at BP Studios Black Box Theater, 618B Moulton Ave., Lincoln Heights; Fri.-Sat., June 21-22, 7:30 pm. Venmo — leave date and email in notes.

A matter of pride

Celebrating LGBTQIA+ artists, Behold! presents a triptych that includes new dance. Dance artists

Monica Williams, Tippy Dringman and Mason Gray worked together for more than seven years before forming their collaborative ensemble TRIN in 2021. Their dance theatre ensemble for these performances includes Bella Allen, Tippy Dringman, Gia Grant, Mason Gray, Mark Ibanez, Cassidy Jorgensen, Caleigh Knapp, Makena Sekimoto, Casey Shea, Haley Smith, Erika Soto, Jess Wicke, Monica Williams, and Jane Zogbi, along with the three founders. Since 2018, Ironstone has created experimental dance, this timeworking with Cade Moga offering Property, a non-linear survey of history and self that segues to Brazil and the concept of ‘cultural cannibalism.’ Cuban-born Martin-Matamoros brings Princesa, an autobiographical consideration of a queer childhood. Highways Performance Space, 1651 18th St., Santa Monica; Fri.-Sat., June 21-22, 8:30 pm, $15-$20, Highways Performance Space.

Tip top tap

The concluding event of the Hollywood Tap Fest All-Star Concert 2024 finds tap stars joined by promising participants from the three days of classes and an earlier choreographic residency. Presented by Chloe and Maud Arnold, aka Syncopated Ladies, and Debbie Allen, concert info, as well as festival workshops and classes are at the website. Shonda Rhimes Performing Arts Center, 1850 S. Manhattan Place, West Adams; Sat., June 22, 7:30 pm $45. Hollywood Tap Fest.

All that glitters

American Contemporary Ballet artistic director Lincoln Jones has long sought to emulate the legendary ballet choreographer George Balanchine, both by bringing in works by Balanchine and in Jones' own choreography for the company. In his most ambitious and perhaps audacious effort, Jones latest, Sapphires, purports to provide a fourth act to Balanchine's Jewels. Set to Schoenberg's Suite for Strings, Sapphires can be judged alongside excerpts from La Source, an actual Balanchine ballet. Bank of America Plaza, 333 S. Hope St., C-150, downtown; Thurs.-Sat., 8 pm, thru Sat., June 29, $60-$140. SEASON XII 2023 – 2024.

Book to stage

Following up on the burlesque parody, The Empire Strips Back, Russall T Beattie riffs on his coffee table book that tracked Gotham's caped crusaders in comic books from 1919. What originally was announced as Gotham Follies of 1939, now is billed as Batette Follies of 1939. There will be dancing with vaudeville and burlesque along with irreverent parodies of the times and comic book personalities. Montalban Theatre, 1615 Vine St., Hollywood; Thurs.-Sun., thru Fri., July 14, 8 pm, $39-$154. Montalban Theatre.

French Fridays

Promising a French flavored performance, Cabaret Versatile presents Ohlala! Nights. Cat's

Crawl, 660 Heliotrope Dr., East Hollywood; Fridays, thru June 28, Cabaret Versatile; Eventbrite.

Hollywood Fringe Festival

Drawing comparisons between the career and legacy of legendary ballerina Anna Pavlova and her signature solo Dying Swan, Devil's Dice Productions brings Death of a Swan to the Hollywood Fringe Festival. Maddie Natoli is Anna, Mason Williams is Death. The show won Best Dance/Physical Movement at the 2023 Tucson Fringe Festival.
