The Other Side of the Solstice

Ann Haskins · Thursday, June 26th, 2025

Summer dance festivals in West LA and Lincoln Heights; Hansel and Gretel for adults in Sierra Madre; a feathered ballet classic downtown; classical Okinawan dance in Torrance; new choreography in Lincoln Heights and Koreatown; more SoCal dance this week, and a peek at what's coming next week.

Live This Week

Into the woods

Like a chef to follow wherever they pop up to cook, because they really know how to cook, some choreographers are worth following for similar reasons. Rosanna Gamson is such a worthy one. She thoughtfully curates trending technical and movement modes to showcase her insightful perspective on overlooked aspects of known subjects. This weekend, she and the dancers of Rosanna Gamson/WorldWide bring their critically acclaimed Sugar Houses, reconsidering the Grimm fairy tale, Hansel and Gretel. Employing only portable lights and a set hand-drawn in chalk, Gamson and her splendid dancers explore how the familiar German fairytale's happy ending, shrouds elements of a darker history. Sierra Madre Playhouse, 87 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre; Sat,-Sun., June 28-29, 7:30 pm, $12-$35. Sierra Madre Playhouse.

A Boston visitor

Among the nation's most prestigious companies, Boston Ballet hasn't been seen in LA since the 1980's. The company finally returns, this time with Swan Lake and a live orchestra. The choreography is by company artistic director Mikko Nissinen after the 1895 version by Russian choreographers Marius Petipa and Lev Ivanov. The five performances offer three sets of leads, sampling the depth of the company roster. On Thursday and Saturday evenings, the masterful Viktorina Kapitonova and Sangmin Lee dance the leads. Friday night and Sunday matinee belong to the blistering technique and deep musicality of Ji Young Chae, paired with Jeffrey Cirio, Saturday's matinee brings fast rising Chisako Oga and Yue Shi. Reviews from Boston suggest all three casts are top notch. Music Center, Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, 135 N. Grand Ave., downtown; Thurs.-Fri., June 26-27, 7:30 pm, Sat., June 28, 1 & 7:30 pm, Sun., June 29, 2 pm, $49-$163. Music Center.

A 40th anniversary

Okinawa is among the southernmost islands of Japan. While part of Japan, it has a distinct culture from a long history that brought influences from China, Korea, and its own Ryukyu Kingdom. Somewhat akin to Hawaii being part of the U.S., yet with its own history and distinctive cultural traditions. Just as the hula differs from mainland dance, Okinawa has dance traditions that differ from the main Japanese dance. SoCal is home to several dance companies preserving Okinawan dance traditions, including Tamagusuku Ryu Kansen Atae no Kai (formerly Kansenkai), celebrating its 40th anniversary with Kansen nu Michi Tirashi (Lighting the Path for Future Generations). The concert honors the legacy of Keiko Yonamine Sensei with guest performers and musicians from Okinawa, Hawaii, California, and Texas. James Armstrong Theatre, 3330 Civic Center Dr., Torrance; Sat., June 28, 2-5 pm, $45. $40 students. Tickets.

Summer dancing

Part performance, part participatory event, the free, al fresco summer series Dance DTLA continues its weekly summer season with Afrobeats with Kara Jenellel. A beginner/refresher lesson at 7 pm is followed by a chance to dance or just watch and enjoy until 11 pm. If this week is not your style, the full line up of upcoming dance options is at the website. Music Center, Jerry Moss Plaza, 135 N. Grand Ave., downtown; Fri., June 27, 7 pm, free. Music Center.
