These movies have star-studded cast and crew members who want to deliver their best to make their audience chuckle. You won't have to wait for several hours at the box office counter to buy a ticket to watch comedy movies since streaming services like Netflix and Amazon Prime offer hundreds of classic movies for you to choose from.

Take a look at the top 10 comedy movies that you don't want to miss watching with your friends.

Due Date (2010)

Due Date is an American comedy classic movie starring Robert Downey Jr. and Zach Galifianakis. Peter Highman, played by Robert Downey Jr., is an outstanding architect on his way to Los Angeles from Atlanta. He must reach Los Angeles in time to meet his wife, Sarah, who is about to deliver their baby in a hospital.

Once Peter boards the flight to Los Angeles, he begins talking to Ethan Tremblay (Zach Galifianakis) on the plane. The conversation between these 2 gentlemen gives rise to several comedic situations that put Peter at risk of being late for the delivery of his child. You can expect plenty of laughs from your buddies while watching Due Date together.

Casino Royale (1967)

Casino Royale is a spy parody based on James Bond and his adventures. James Bond must train a team of baccarat players in order to defeat members of SMERSH, a counter-intelligence agency from the USSR.

A majority of the movie takes place at the Casino Royale with multiple instances of action and humor to entertain fans. It is loads of fun to watch women from SMERSH try to seduce James Bond and his men before they can escape from the casino.

Ted (2012)

Ted is a comedy film written and directed by Seth MacFarlane. He is the creator of the hit TV series, Family Guy, and brings a wealth of experience to the film. Mark Wahlberg portrays John Bennett, a pothead with a stuffed teddy bear as his best friend. Ted, the toy bear, patiently waits for John to finish work and accompanies him during smoking sessions. The stoner movie takes quite a few turns as Ted must fight for his place in John's life, despite having plans to settle with his girlfriend.

22 Jump Street (2014)

22 Jump Street is a sequel to 21 Jump Street and follows the story of 2 cops as they attend college to track down a new drug and its supplier. Jonah Hill and Channing Tatum reprise their roles as friendly cops in the Hollywood sequel, giving people exactly what they need to laugh their lungs out. It grossed more than $331 million, making it one of the biggest comedy movies of 2014.

17 Again (2009)

17 Again is a fun fantasy movie about a 37-year-old dad who is transformed into a teenager. Mike O'Donnell gets a second chance at reliving his senior year in college and takes his time to convince his kids that they can be much more in life. Can he succeed at winning over his kids or will Mike fail to impress his children all over again?

A Very Harold & Kumar Christmas (2011)

A Very Harold & Kumar Christmas is the third installment in the comedic franchise. Kal Penn and John Cho will have you giggling throughout the movie as the comedy duo search the streets of New York City in search of a Christmas tree. Neil Patrick Harris has a memorable role in helping Harold and Kumar replace the tree before Harold's father-in-law finds out.

The Campaign (2012)

The Campaign is a political satire about winning the American election. Cam Brady, a 4th term Congressman, does what it takes to defeat Marty Huggins, a rookie Republican. Marty Huggins is backed by the Motch brothers as they coerce the Republican into setting up new factories that recruit Chinese labor. Will Ferrell looks amazing in The Campaign as a politician fighting to defend his territory.

Crazy, Stupid, Love. (2011)

Crazy, Stupid, Love. is a rom-com that revolves around the love life of Cal. Steve Carell is the lead actor in the comedy movie and must redeem himself from battling his wife over a divorce. Ryan Gosling plays a friend named Jacob who helps Cal find his manhood and hook up with women at the bar after his traumatic marriage.

Project X (2012)

Based on true events, Project X is a teenage comedy about 3 high schoolers and a massive birthday bash. You can witness a whole new level of fun as the teenagers invite dozens of jocks, geeks, and celebrities, to the party. Drugs, sex, and fireworks are what's in store for people as mayhem erupts in Project X. Tracks from Kid Cudi and Bassnectar turn Project X into a blast for people watching the movie.

EuroTrip (2004)

EuroTrip takes you on a wild ride across Europe. Scott Thomas, a teenager from Ohio, is just dumped by his girlfriend on graduation day. After his break up, Scott Thomas decides to visit Europe to meet his online friend, Mieke, to hook up during his vacation. He travels with his friends from America to London, Paris, and Berlin to woo his internet love interest.
