Vignettes of public human presence in pandemic times

Maurice Amiel · Wednesday, August 4th, 2021

Given the contextual constraints on social contacts the reader will appreciate, I hope, my interest for the presence of real people in the street:

The pandemic walk

Too sunny to stay indoors

In the lack of real presence, traces of such are also interesting to find in the street

Nah … not cool enough!

Only two legs?

Who is the fairest photographer of them all?

Are they talking chair talk?

Such traces, or lack of them, can also be found in/on buildings

Really … no comment!

VS.

Really … no comment!

Bien le bonjour de Montréal!
Maurice
